

ESTHER PROJECT 2010

No life is insignificant, only how we choose to live it. Our Heavenly Father created all with a divine purpose in helping build His Kingdom. Life has a way of stealing our "Divine Destinies". Come and share in the Women's Retreat, January 15-17, 2010. Where we will come together and see the "Esther" in all of us, working towards our divine purpose... "For you have been called for a time such as this."

Ministry will be brought through Marilyn Slauter, Barb Stelzer, Bev Morrow, Kara Wiggins and Trish Epperson. This will be a weekend of defining, cleansing and stepping up to the position God has given to each of His daughters.. Just as it was for Esther, so it is for us.

ARLIN EPPERSON, DIRECTOR

GUEST MINISTRY

FRANK AND MEPHTALI SEAMSTER

Frank Seamster is a servant of God with an anointed, prophetic ministry, a man with a message from Heaven declaring uncompromising allegiance to the reign of Christ on earth. He loves the local church with an abiding Christ-like love, and while pastoring received the call to minister to the Church at large as a traveling evangelist. For over 24 years, inviting Revival and the forsaking of flesh to follow Christ in the Spirit. He has a burning vision for the Church's spiritual growth and maturity that will challenge you to humble yourself before the Lord so that His Kingdom comes and His Will is done on earth as it is. Frank ministers and preaches in over 40 different congregations as he travels throughout America and beyond to the isles and nations. These include World Revival Ministries (Smithton outpouring church), and Ignite the Fire (Lakeland, FL, location of the Bentley outpouring). Frank proclaims the fire and glory in H e a v e n .

Living in the Land of the Word for several years, "beholding the goodness and the severity of God" (Rom. 11:22) from Galilee to Sodom, Naphthali Seamster declares the same "conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep His Commandments." (Ecc. 12:13) Her love for God's ancient Jewish and Arab people and the chasm between them led her to the Middle East where she lived in Jerusalem and in Lebanon. Naphthali contends for the Church to love God wholly, give unto Him wholly, and live a wholly prayerful, fasted lifestyle. We are His Workmanship and can become a "repairer of the breach" making up the hedge, standing in the gap for a people, being the "restorer of paths" and a highway of holiness for our families and nations to enter His Kingdom and Presence.

NEWS FROM THE CANADIAN CCM GROUP

By Kathy DeCaluwe

Grace Moor ordained to Evangelist

Grace Moor was ordained to evangelist Saturday October 17th at the Eastern Canadian Conference in Guelph Ontario, she was ordained by Apostle Mary Jack Dynes assisted by her husband Evangelist Bev Moor. Grace has been a matriarch to many of us for a long time, I thank the Lord that she has been ordained to this office and look forward to the ministry she and Bev will continue to provide, I am so grateful the Lord has placed

CANADIAN THANKSGIVING RETREAT RICHLY BLESSED

We were blessed by the Spirit of God at the Canadian Thanksgiving retreat held at Erie Beach camp ground on October 9-11th. Ruby Hanson and her daughter Lenore Marple did a wonderful job of directing the retreat, the theme was "Come to the Potter's House" the focus of the weekend was family and youth. The youth provided much of the ministry from getting us active in a scavenger hunt to serving us a feast of "Thanksgiving" then leading us in worship with their newly formed band. I was impressed to hear their openness and honesty with their struggles and the pain they endure and their willingness to ask for help and then the graciousness of our heavenly Father to provide that help through prayer and the youth's freedom to be there for one another to dust each other off and without judgment set them back on their feet again, we certainly learn a lot from them. What a blessing it was to work hand and hand with each other, and although the temperatures outside were quite cool the Spirit of God was there to warm us up, I was grateful to be served by the youth and look forward to sitting under their ministry anytime.

WOMEN'S FALL RETREAT

By Deanna Beebe

Many of us who attended this retreat know we were highly blessed by our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Gay Spalding and Heather Atkinson provided the teaching on Saturday and Derek Sanders continued with what the Lord had been presenting to us since the opening of the retreat on Friday night— to pray for each other. Our theme was Love Without Reservation and the Lord brought forth the call of loving each other and ourselves.

After the opening prayer and a skit about the Lord's Prayer, we began our praises in song. God then put upon several of us that some were carrying unforgiveness in our hearts. Gay prayed for the calling out of forgiveness, and we broke into groups to pray for each other.

Throughout Saturday, Gay and Heather were led by the Holy Spirit of God to present ways in which we limit the love God has for us by expecting a human kind of love from Him. We also were presented with an understanding of not expecting anyone to believe as each one of us do independently, or even expect them to love us back.

I know that I felt the outpouring of the Holy Spirit throughout the entire weekend. It felt like we were in one prayer from the opening prayer to the closing prayer.

The Daughters of Zion have been called forth to bring the truth of the Scriptures to the broken, oppressed, abused and abandoned daughters of God. He will place before us many who are in grave need of love and we are called to love without reservation. Despite differences we face and will continue face, love has one voice and His name is Jesus.

DAN BENJAMIN TO BE ORDAINED TO THE OFFICE OF EVANGELIST

Dan Benjamin of Clio, Michigan, will be ordained to the office of Evangelist on November 15.

There's something like radar inside the human heart that senses the displeasure of others. Displeasure and ingratitude are like a repellant to human relationships. People think, "If I can't measure up, if you can't see anything good in me, I'll go where people will accept me as I am." Thanksgiving brings our loved ones closer to us rather than driving them away.

Greetings from the Great Southwest

By Tom Barrett

The world-famous, Labor Day Family Retreat at Saints Grove had a special treat this year. Guest Ministry was brought to by the-one-and-only (or two-and-only) Otis and Wynella Hardy.

This was indeed a family retreat, which meant that everyone was welcome. With that comes a need for interested (and church approved) youth leaders.

Linda Barrett volunteered to work with the preschool children. Volunteers were sought to work with other age groups.

We continued our praise, worship, learning, healing that we have already experienced at both the Graceland Celebration and the Canadian Celebration with a desire to come to a Holy Place: Saints Grove, Oklahoma.

If you missed this year, plan to attend in 2010!

Love, Peace, and Continued Blessings,

EPPERSON TO BEGIN 2-3 MONTH AFRICAN MISSION JANUARY 2010

Our brother, Arlin Epperson, will take a sabbatical leave of absence from his position at Columbia College to return to Africa on January 17, 2010, for a 2-3 month mission trip.

Arlin's travels will take him to cities in the African countries of Kenya and Zambia where he will preach and hold seminars to teach about healing and deliverance.

Please keep our brother in prayer as he travels. He will be traveling in areas plagued by drought and famine.

Our brother finances his mission trips through personal finances and contributions to Healing of the Spirit Ministries. If you would like to contribute to the mission, contributions may be sent to HSM, 905 Eastland Circle, Columbia, MO 65201.

If you are interested in receiving Marlin's African Reports regarding his mission, please send your name and email address to bevorrow@mchsi.com.
