

Announcements

Join with sisters and brothers from around the world in the 2007 World Conference, March 24–31, at International Headquarters in Independence, Missouri, exploring the theme, “Share Christ, Share Peace.”

Come to the pre-Conference Service of Honor and Recognition

Friday, March 23, in the Temple sanctuary at 4:30 p.m. to honor recipients of the International Human Rights Award, the World Community International Youth Service Award, and the Elbert A. Smith Award for excellent writing published in the Herald, and recognize field ministers who are retiring or have served full-time for 25 years. Please demonstrate your appreciation by attending this service if possible.

Contribute to a special offering to help provide for Conference at www.CofChrist.org, by writing World Conference on the World side of your offering envelope, and through the Conference registration form.

Saturday, March 24, opens Conference at 6:30 p.m. with the opening legislative session, flag ceremony, and worship in the Auditorium. The Graceland orchestra will perform.

Worship in the Temple on Monday and Thursday nights. Register for Conference to ensure your ticket for these services. (A limited number of tickets will be available each evening at the foyer desk for guests.)

Celebrate at the World Market and International Hymn Festival on Friday, March 30. Sample foods from around the globe, enjoy multicultural music, and purchase various crafts at the market on the World Plaza beginning at noon and join the parade processional to the Auditorium to lift your voice in praise at the hymn festival at 8:00 p.m.

Visit www.CofChrist.org/wc2007/ for online registration, additional announcements, and more.

Announcements

Join with sisters and brothers from around the world in the 2007 World Conference, March 24–31, at International Headquarters in Independence, Missouri, exploring the theme, “Share Christ, Share Peace.”

Come to the pre-Conference Service of Honor and Recognition

Friday, March 23, in the Temple sanctuary at 4:30 p.m. to honor recipients of the International Human Rights Award, the World Community International Youth Service Award, and the Elbert A. Smith Award for excellent writing published in the Herald, and recognize field ministers who are retiring or have served full-time for 25 years. Please demonstrate your appreciation by attending this service if possible.

Contribute to a special offering to help provide for Conference at www.CofChrist.org, by writing World Conference on the World side of your offering envelope, and through the Conference registration form.

Saturday, March 24, opens Conference at 6:30 p.m. with the opening legislative session, flag ceremony, and worship in the Auditorium. The Graceland orchestra will perform.

Worship in the Temple on Monday and Thursday nights. Register for Conference to ensure your ticket for these services. (A limited number of tickets will be available each evening at the foyer desk for guests.)

Celebrate at the World Market and International Hymn Festival on Friday, March 30. Sample foods from around the globe, enjoy multicultural music, and purchase various crafts at the market on the World Plaza beginning at noon and join the parade processional to the Auditorium to lift your voice in praise at the hymn festival at 8:00 p.m.

Visit www.CofChrist.org/wc2007/ for online registration, additional announcements, and more.