Providing our IRA gift is a partial repayment for what the church and its members have given us. We would not be the same people if we had not been lifelong members of Community of Christ. The church and what it stands for are deep in our DNA, and it is a joyful experience to give back in this way.

As we have traveled around the world, we have seen the need and passion of people to have Christ in their lives. We’re excited to support an endowment through our IRA that will allow funds to go much further, helping more in need and giving joy to their lives.

I don’t know that I would call it ‘extravagant generosity,’ but perhaps ‘thoughtful stewardship.’ After much deliberation, prayer, and thought, we decided it was a good idea for our estate to avoid probate when we pass. We’ve set up our estate, including our IRA distributions, in a way that will result in a larger total sum of money for each of our sons, and a larger donation to the church in the end. We are pleased with how we’ve arranged our affairs, and the church will ultimately benefit in some way.

Impact Mission in Multiple Ways

Your IRA Gift Can Support Worldwide Mission Now

Perhaps you already are contributing to Community of Christ through your envelopes or online. By contributing to support Worldwide Mission Tithes through your IRA, you may be able to increase the amount you contribute and save on taxes.

Your IRA Gift Can Support Worldwide Mission in Perpetuity

For many individuals, your IRA has increased in value and may be the largest asset in your estate. Additionally, you may not need the extra income. An IRA charitable rollover allows you to make a major gift up to $100,000 annually. By designating these contributions to an endowment, you can support and grow mission beyond your lifetime.

Your IRA Gift Can Support Worldwide Mission in the Future

If you believe that making an outright gift from your IRA isn’t right for you, consider making Community of Christ a beneficiary of your IRA. In most cases, the government defers tax on the income used to fund your IRA. After your lifetime, these funds are subject to income and estate taxes. By naming Community of Christ as a beneficiary of these funds, we are exempt from taxes and will receive the entire amount you designate.

Reduce Your Taxable Income - Rolling over some or all of your required minimum distribution means that amount is not included in your taxable income.

Benefit Even If You Don’t Itemize - An IRA charitable rollover generates neither taxable income nor a tax deduction, so you can benefit even if you do not itemize your tax deductions.

Avoid IRS Giving Limits - With an IRA charitable rollover, you may give more than the usual deductible amount of 50 percent of adjusted gross income (AGI).

How Do I Make a Gift Through My IRA?

Giving a gift through an IRA charitable rollover is simple. You can find the forms on the Community of Christ website at www.CofChrist.org/give, or you can contact us at missionfunding@CofChrist.org, 1-800-884-7526.

If you want to make Community of Christ a whole or partial beneficiary of your retirement plan, simply use the beneficiary-designation form supplied by your financial institution. We are grateful for your generosity and are here to help any way we can.

What is an IRA Charitable Rollover?

In 2015, Congress made permanent the Individual Retirement Account (IRA) charitable rollover legislation that allows individuals 70½ or older to transfer a tax-free gift from their IRA directly to charities.

Why Should I Consider this Type of Gift?

Your contribution can be used to support mission and make a difference in people’s lives. You pay no income taxes on this contribution. The transfer generates neither taxable income nor a tax deduction, so you benefit even if you do not itemize your deductions. If you have not yet taken your required minimum distribution for the year, your IRA charitable gift can satisfy all or part of that requirement.

The IRA rollover allows those 70½ or older to transfer up to $100,000 directly from their IRA to Community of Christ.

An IRA rollover gift is a tax-exempt distribution, allowing you to give to support mission by using pre-tax assets.

An IRA rollover gift can be used to meet all or part of your annual required minimum distribution.

Good for Mission. Good for You.

Now that the IRA rollover law is permanent, you can take advantage of this giving opportunity now and in the future. There is no better time and no better way to impact mission around the world.
